

About Enterprise Europe Network

Launched in February 2008 by the European Commission, the Enterprise Europe Network offers its support especially to small and medium enterprises (SMEs) in Europe. All activities of the network aim at promoting innovation and competitiveness in Europe. The services offered by nearly 600 partner organisations in 49 European and non-European countries include partner searches for technology, research and business cooperation, technology audits, advice on European regulations, current programmes and funding opportunities.

About Future Match

CeBIT is the world's leading fair for information and communication technologies (ICT) in Hannover with more than 4.200 exhibitors and 339.000 visitors in 2011. For more information please visit www.cebit.de

Since 1999, the brokerage event Future Match at CeBIT has enabled exhibitors and visitors of the fair to find partners for commercial and technological cooperation, e.g.:

- technology transfer
- licensing
- research and development projects
- subcontracting and outsourcing
- sales and distribution agreements

Companies, universities and research institutes in the ICT sector are again invited to use this opportunity to establish new cross-border contacts for future cooperation at Future Match 2012.

Some facts and figures from Future Match 2011:

- over 260 participants
- 35 countries represented
- 1.140 bilateral meetings

How to participate:

- Register and submit a cooperation profile with a description of your offer or request online at:
www.futurematch.cebit.de
- Profiles are published in a constantly updated online catalogue.
- Participants select interesting profiles from the catalogue and request meetings.
- Meetings of 30 minutes are scheduled by the network staff.
